COMMUNITY INTEREST ANNUAL REPORT

WEST Lothian CHINESE COMMUNITY HUB CIC

Company Number: SC723921 (Scotland)

Year Ending: 28 February 2024

Company activities and impact

The West Lothian Chinese Community HUB is an organization dedicated to promoting the development of the Chinese community. During the financial year, we offered a variety of activities and services, including: Adult Chinese Club (18 years old and above) Chinese Club for Kids and Teens (3 to 18 years old) The Adult Chinese Club helps adults learn Chinese, while the Kids and Teens Chinese Club provides a platform for learning and communication for teenagers of a specific age. The Asian Culture Club introduces Asian culture to community members and promotes multicultural understanding. The Asian Culinary Club also offers the opportunity to learn about Asian cuisine, from the culinary process to the cultural significance behind it. The Bilingual Picture Book Reading Club provides an offline picture book reading library where parents and children can read and borrow. Cultural Ambassadors Come to Campus, we invite students from Asia to come into their schools with the materials we have prepared to introduce Asian festivals. Bilingual camp activities, which provide camp activities during the holidays and ASN children. Our focus is to help the Chinese community better integrate into the local mainstream community and promote community harmony. We provide a comprehensive understanding of Asian culture to the local mainstream society and foster an appreciation of the cultural similarities and unique characteristics of the people of the Asian region.

Consultation with stakeholders

In terms of stakeholders, the West Lothian Chinese Community Hub primarily serves the Asian residents of West Lothian, as well as the local community members who engage with our activities and services. Additionally, the Hub aims to collaborate with local businesses, organizations, and government agencies to promote cultural integration and support the needs of the community. Regarding consultation with stakeholders, the Hub has actively engaged with the Asian residents and the local community through various channels. We conduct regular meetings and surveys to gather feedback and suggestions on our services and activities. The Hub also maintains open communication channels, such as social media platforms and email, to ensure that stakeholders can easily reach out with their concerns or ideas. In response to the feedback received from consultations, the Hub has taken several actions. We have expanded our services to include Chinese language classes in Mandarin and Cantonese, as well as Asian cultural activities, to promote cultural exchange and understanding between the Chinese community and the local community. Additionally, the establishment of the "Asian background Special Needs Support Group" demonstrates our commitment to addressing the specific needs of Asian families with special needs children and helping them overcome language and cultural barriers. It is worth noting that the West Lothian Chinese Community Hub is still a relatively new organization, established in 2020, and its consultative processes are ongoing. As we continue to grow and develop, we remain dedicated to engaging with our stakeholders and taking action based on their feedback to ensure that we meet the evolving needs of the community.
